

2009 Pittsburgh Vintage Grand Prix Patron Parking

Schenley Park - Sunday, July 19, 2009

Proceeds benefit Autism Society of Pittsburgh & Allegheny Valley School

Sponsored by

Table Magazine

One of the most enjoyable parts of vintage racing in Schenley Park is Patron Parking – a vital part of our event since its founding in 1983. You're invited to park your vehicle on the golf course and throw a party. Bring a picnic basket, stage a tailgate party, or cater a lavish feast. Patron's have an excellent vantage point of the races while relaxing with friends and family. You are invited to drive your vehicle for a parade lap on the actual racecourse right before the races begin! Each Patron receives a Dash Plaque, Race Program and Pin. Parking for your support vehicle will be provided. Prizes awarded for the best parties. Patron Platinum Tents are also available, they include a supplied 20' x 20' tent and space for two cars alongside.

Sunday, July 19, 2009 on the Schenley Park Golf Course

- 9:00 am Gates open
- 9:30 - 10:00 am Cars line-up on Schenley Drive for 10:30 am Parade
- Noon - 5:00 pm Vintage Races through the streets of Schenley Park

The PVGP Patron Parking Committee looks forward to accommodating your needs to help make your Patron Parking experience as enjoyable as possible.
